

Year 6
Term	Topic	Outcome	Grammar Objectives to be taught
			Word Level	Sentence Level
Advent 1	Inspiring India	Diary Entry (Holes) (2 clusters)	Cluster 1 Use as starters to remind children of the tone of writing: Use phrasal verbs (verb + preposition or adverb) in informal writing, but not formal, writing Informal: get up ask for go in Formal: rise request enter Understand an object of a clause as a noun or noun phrase that is the recipient of the action and typically follows the verb Jim chased a wasp around the house. When he swung his net , he tripped over. Know and use the following subordinating conjunctions as if as long as as much as if only in case provided that since	Cluster 2 Use a hyphen to avoid ambiguity Begin a sentence with 3 adverbial clauses Although his skin prickled with fear, although ice filled his veins, although his heart hammered against his ribcage, the boy opened the cellar door.
				Cluster 1 Use semi-colons in a complex list Distinguish between essential (not separated by commas) and non-essential (separated by commas) relative clauses The rats that scrabbled about on the table gnawed at rotting food. The rats, which scrabbled about on the table, gnawed at rotting food. The boy pushed open the rusty door that led to the cellar. The boy pushed open the rusty door, which led to the cellar.

		Biography (Local Hero) (1 cluster)	Cluster 1 Know and use the following linking adverbs above all consequently in contrast instead nevertheless nonetheless otherwise subsequently	Cluster 1 Co-ordinate 4 predicates in a double seesaw pattern Strange voices whispered from the walls and echoed through the house, writhed inside the boy's head and filled him with dread and despair.
		Poetry (Poppy Fields) (1 cluster)	Cluster 1 Know and use a range of indefinite pronouns another both enough less more nobody nothing plenty others several someone	Cluster 1 Use an -ed non-finite clause , separating with commas
	Lent 1 Frozen Kingdom	Adventure (Escape Titanic) (3 clusters)	Cluster 1 Use adjectives that describe origin local distant French Saxon	Cluster 1 Use an -ed non-finite clause , separating with commas Smothered by a thick layer of dust, furniture was scattered about the room. Furniture was scattered about the room, smothered by a thick layer of dust. Furniture, smothered in dust, was scattered about the room. Coordinate 3 -ing non-finite clauses The boy crept through the room, sweeping his torch around the room, shining it into dark corners and chasing away the shadows. Slithering under doors, snaking over the floor, pooling in shadows, mist filled the house.

			Cluster 2 Coordinate 3 appositives, separating with commas The boy, a brave soul and a fearless adventurer or a just fool with a death wish, entered the old house. Combine an appositive with a non-finite clause The moon, a ghostly galleon sailing upon tattered clouds, cast a sickly light upon the world below. The earth was soaked by incessant rain, a raging torrent filled with hate and fury.
			Cluster 3 Use adjective phrases a dimly lit room the beautifully painted vase this jade-winged dragon our six-page leaflet
			Cluster 3 Combine an appositive with a relative clause Spiders, huge hairy-legged beasts that sat in the centre of vast webs, lurked in the darkness. The stairway led to a basement, a shadowy room whose stone walls were carved with arcane symbols
Lent 2	A Child's War (WW2)	Non-Chronological report (1 cluster)	Cluster 1 Use the subjunctive mood in formal writing If I were rich, I'd buy a gold-plated bicycle. Max ordered Jim around as if he were the king. Cluster 1 Use the subjunctive mood with the subordinating conjunctions if and as if If he were brave for just a little longer, the boy could defeat this evil. +stepped into the darkness as if he were a fearless adventurer

		Poetry (WW2 poetry) (1 cluster)	Cluster 1 Know and use a range of quantifying determiners all another both each enough every few less more no many other several some	Cluster 1 Coordinate 3 -ing non-finite clauses The boy crept through the room, sweeping his torch around the room, shining it into dark corners and chasing away the shadows. Slithering under doors, snaking over the floor, pooling in shadows, mist filled the house. Coordinate 4 non-finite clauses in a double see-saw pattern The boy crept through the house, inching along corridors and climbing stairs, stepping over furniture and peering into dark corners.
--	--	---------------------------------	---	---

Pentecost 1	Frozen Kingdom	Journalistic (Newspaper Report: Dia de los Muertos) (2 clusters)	Cluster 1 Distinguish between the active voice (in which the subject is the agent of the action) and the passive voice (in which the subject is the recipient of the action) active - Jim chased a bee around the room. passive - The bee was chased around the room.	Cluster 1 Coordinate 3 relative clauses The evil, which lurked in the cellar, which filled the house with terror and which burrowed into the boy's skull, grew stronger with every step
-------------	----------------	--	---	--

			Cluster 2 Form passive verbs , using the form: to be + past participle (usually an -ed verb) was watched were carried are broken is caught	Cluster 2 Omit a relative pronoun (who, that or which) at the start of an essential relative clause The door that the boy pushed open creaked upon rusty hinges. An icy draught howled through the door which the boy had pushed open. Use indirect (reported) speech The boy said that he was terrified throughout his adventure.
Pentecost 2	Crime and Punishment	Newspaper report		Cluster 1 Use a linking adverb after a semi colon The boy knew he should flee this place; instead, he inched through the darkness. Use semi-colons in a bulleted list The boy carried: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • a torch; • a lantern; • his packed lunch.
				Cluster 2 Use a colon to illustrate or expand The monster was ravenous: it salivated greedily.